occasions. There is a plan placed in Gen file no. 192 of 1910 (page 8 of the notes) for the space of ground in the Park placed at the disposal of the Committee for the Fete of Decr 1910. The Gardens Supdt appears to have stated ~~that~~ (vide para 11 above) that the space now required is smaller.

He probably only wanted to convey the idea that the Committee was not asking for more space. As a matter of fact, the space required is smaller this year than in 1910, as a comparison of the plans will show, and as Mr Krumbiegel has apparently informed the 1st Councillor
